

The 'P' word: still relevant in a changing world?

Palliative care in the 21st century

Day 1: Thursday 10th September 2020

Chair: Mr Mike Wilkerson, Chief Executive, Saint Catherine's, Scarborough

9.30am	Housekeeping and introduction
9.35am	Setting the scene Professor Miriam Johnson, Professor of Palliative Medicine, Hull York Medical School and Director of the Wolfson Palliative Care Research Centre, University of Hull. Honorary Consultant to Saint Catherine's Hospice and York Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust.

Session 1: Palliative care: what about the 'F' word?

9.45am	Frailty and palliative care: relevant or duplication? Professor Caroline Nicholson, Professor of Palliative Care and Ageing, University of Surrey
10.30am	Tea & coffee

Session 2: Workshops. A changing world: we didn't worry about these 10 years ago...

11.00am	The 'D' word: dealing with delirium Dr Hannah Zacharias, Consultant in Palliative Care, St Gemma's Hospice
	Ceilings of care and DNACPR (Do Not Attempt Cardio Pulmonary Resuscitation) Dr Donald Richardson, Deputy Medical Director of York Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and Mrs Kath Sartain, Lead Nurse for End of Life Care, York Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust.
	Research: challenges to practice? Professor Miriam Johnson
12.15pm	Lunch

Session 3: Palliative care: getting the message out there?

Chair: Dr Suzanne Kite, Consultant in Palliative Medicine, The Leeds Teaching Hospital NHS Trust

1.00pm	Debate: this house believes that palliative care should change its name. Proposer: Dr David Brooks, Macmillan Consultant Physician, Chesterfield Royal Hospital, Past President of the Association for Palliative Medicine of Great Britain and Northern Ireland Second Proposer: Dr Richard Berman, Consultant in Palliative Medicine and Honorary Senior Lecturer, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust Opposer: Professor Simon Noble, Cardiff University Second Opposer: TBC
2.30pm	Having brave conversations Dr Kathryn Mannix, Author of With the End in Mind: How to Live and Die Well
3.15pm	Tea & coffee

Session 4: Palliative care: show and tell...

3.45pm	Community of practice: showing the world what we do Professor Fliss E M Murtagh, Professor of Palliative Care, Hull York Medical School, Associate Director of the Wolfson Palliative Care Research Centre, University of Hull and Honorary Consultant, Hull University Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
4.15pm	Pain management: how do we know if we make a difference? Professor Mike Bennett, St Gemma's Hospice. Head of Academic Unit of Palliative Care, University of Leeds
4.45pm	Evaluation and close

The 'P' word: still relevant in a changing world?

Palliative care in the 21st century

Day 2: Friday 11th September 2020

Chair: Mr Simon Morritt, Chief Executive, York Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation Trust

9.15am	Housekeeping and introduction
Session 1: Integrated palliative care at the sharp end: help or hindrance?
9.20am	Paramedics: crucial palliative care providers Ms Joanne Stonehouse, Macmillan Paramedic Project Manager, South Western Ambulance Service NHS Trust
10.10am	AMU: right place, right care? Professor Dan Lasserson, Professor of Ambulatory Care, University of Birmingham
10.45am	Tea & coffee
Session 2: Integrated palliative care: possible or pipedream?
11.15am	Palliative care in the Intensive Care Unit TBC
11.45am	Integrated palliative care: how could and should we do it? Professor Sheila Payne, Emeritus Professor, International Observatory on End of Life Care, Lancaster University
12.30pm	Lunch
Session 3: Workshops. A changing world: we didn't worry about these things 10 years ago...
1.30pm	Workshops Palliative care: At the paramedic's coalface Mr Andrew Hodge, Consultant Paramedic Urgent Care, Yorkshire Ambulance Service and Mrs Emma Davison Clinical Nurse Specialists: How do we know we are fit for purpose? Ms Catherine Malia, Nurse Consultant, St Gemma's Hospice and Mrs Charlotte Rock, Macmillan Palliative and End of Life Care Lead Nurse, Harrogate and District NHS Foundation Trust. Working with patients no-one else can help TBC
2.30pm	Palliative care: needed more than ever? Professor Miriam Johnson
3.00pm	Wrap up and close Mrs Michelle Muir, Clinical Services Director, Saint Catherine's and Mrs Kath Sartain, Lead Nurse for End of Life Care, York Teaching Hospital NHS Foundation